

PRIVACY NOTICE

British Red Cross Crisis Fund Referral

How we use your information

Moray Council is a Referral Partner to the British Red Cross Crisis Fund. The British Red Cross requires your consent to process your application to the Crisis Fund. When we make a referral on your behalf to the British Red Cross we will ask you if you wish for us to share your information with them so that they can consider and process your application. If you choose to apply for the fund, we will then share your information with the British Red Cross so that they can process your application.

Our legal basis

Whenever the Council processes personal data we need to make sure we have a legal basis for doing so. We understand the Council's basis in data protection law to be Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) because you have given consent to your personal data being used as outlined in this privacy notice.

Personal data that counts as 'special category data' such as health, ethnicity and religion, must satisfy extra conditions when processed. We understand that our legal basis in data protection law for processing this special category data to be Article 9(2)(a) of the GDPR because we require consent to process your personal information.

Who we share your information with

As part of the processing your personal data may be shared with third parties. These third parties include, but are not limited to, British Red Cross.

Your personal data may be shared internally with authorised officers of the Council if having access to personal data is a necessary part of their roles to ensure records are accurate and up to date which improves the standard of the services we deliver. It may also be shared with other relevant Council departments where applicable.

The Council may also share your personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties, where we are under a legal obligation to do so. For example this may be with Police, UK Border Agency or other Registered Professional Bodies.

The Council is required by law to protect public funds against fraud. It may share personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties responsible for auditing and administering public funds, or who otherwise have responsibility for preventing and detecting fraud.

How long the information is held for

Your personal data will be held by Moray Council for a pre-determined length of time. You can find all the information about how long we retain personal data for on our website:

http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray_standard/page_92820.html (found on the Moray Council website under Section 5 of the Records Management Plan).

Your rights

Moray Council is the Data Controller for this personal data. You have legal rights about the way the Council handles and uses your personal data. These include the right to ask for a copy of it, to ask us to correct it and to ask us to stop doing something with your personal data. You have the right to withdraw consent to your personal data being used for this process. For more information about these rights please contact the Council's Data Protection Officer at info@moray.gov.uk.

As so far as the legislation permits, you also have the right to request the deletion of your data and to object to the processing.

You also have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. They are the body responsible for making sure organisations like the Council handle your personal data lawfully.
