Early Learning and Childcare - Sharing with NHS Grampian (Health Visiting Team) 2023

Who we are

Moray Council, Council Office, High Street, Elgin, Moray, IV30 1BX, moray.gov.uk 01343 543451, is a local authority established under the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994. We are the Data Controller of the information being collected.

Why we are collecting your personal information

If you choose to consent to your child's personal information being shared with the National Health Service (NHS) Grampian's Health Visiting Team; your child's name, date of birth and the ELC setting they attend will be shared by the Council's Early Learning and Childcare (ELC) team with NHS Grampian Health Visitors and Clinical Nurses.

This is a new project to ensure both the Council and NHS Grampian have current and up to date information to support your child's nursery placement transition enabling the team around your child to review information, including caseloads, so as to support the needs of your child appropriately as they transition to nursery.

Our legal basis

Whenever the Council processes personal data we need to make sure we have a legal basis for doing so. We understand the Council's basis in data protection law to be Article 6(1)(a) of the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) because you have given consent for your child's personal data being shared with NHS Grampian for the purposes outlined in this privacy notice.

Who we share your information with

If you consent, your child's name, date of birth and the ELC setting they attend will be shared with NHS Grampian. Both the Council and NHS Grampian work in partnership, and in line with current legislation, to ensure the team around your child processes your child's personal data appropriately. For more information on how NHS Grampian process personal information, please see the Privacy Notices available on their website here: <https://www.nhsgrampian.org/about-us/data-protection/>

Your personal data may be shared internally with authorised officers of the Council if having access to personal data is a necessary part of their roles, such as to ensure records are accurate and up to date. It may also be shared with other relevant Council departments where applicable.

The Council may share your personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties, where we are under a legal obligation to do so. For example this may be with Police, Social Security Scotland, UK Border Agency or other Registered Professional Bodies.

The Council is required by law to protect public funds against fraud. It may share personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties responsible for auditing and administering public funds, or who otherwise have responsibility for preventing and detecting fraud.

How long the information is held for

Your personal data will be securely stored by Moray Council for a pre-determined length of time. Information is only kept for the minimum amount of time necessary. We maintain a record retention schedule which sets out how long we retain different types of personal data. This is available on our website: http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray_standard/page_92820.html (under Section 5 of the Records Management Plan).

The Council stores information within the UK.

Your rights

Moray Council is the Data Controller for this personal data. You have legal rights about the way the Council handles and uses your personal data. These include the right to ask for a copy of it, to ask us to correct it and to ask us to stop doing something with your personal data.

You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time by emailing: ELCAdmin@moray.gov.uk
As so far as the legislation permits, you also have the right to request the deletion of your data, and to object to the processing.

For more information about these rights, please see the Information Management pages on the Council's website here: http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray_standard/page_41220.html. Alternatively, email the Council's Data Protection Officer at: dataprotection@moray.gov.uk

You also have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. They are the body responsible for making sure organisations like the Council handle your personal data lawfully.
