

FOI Request - Secondary School Education Information - 101003320141

	In response to the rise in popularity of Andrew Tate and the forms of toxic masculinity and misogyny he and his followers advocate on social media, has the secondary school implemented any new courses, workshops or lessons in the curriculum to discuss these topics with pupils?	If so, please give a brief outline of the content and type of arrangements that have been made.	The number of internal complaints of inappropriate behaviour (such as sexual assault, sexual harassment, revenge porn, upskirting or any other sexual offences as outlined in the Sexual Offences (Scotland) Act 2009) from one pupil towards another pupil	If there were any internal complaints, please include the outcome of each complaint (ie if they were internally found to be true/false, reported to police etc)	The number of internal complaints of inappropriate behaviour (such as sexual assault, sexual harassment, relations with a minor or any other sexual offences as outlined in the Sexual Offences (Scotland) Act 2009) from an adult working at the school (ie. faculty, administration etc.) towards a pupil at the secondary school	If there were any internal complaints, please include the outcome of each complaint (ie if they were internally found to be true/false, reported to police etc)
Buckie High	Yes	We have added inserts into our PSE programme that address this, along with resources and guidance for all teaching staff on how to deal with this if it emerges during any other lessons.	Data around any acts that were covered would be part of the Vulnerable Persons Database reporting procedure which is not held by us. Our Seemis records just indicate that there has been a VPD – not the detail.	N/A	In accordance with Section 38(1)(b) of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 we can advise that the requested information is withheld due to low numbers (<5) and the related risk of allowing those individuals to be identified
Elgin Academy	No	N/A	NIL	N/A
Elgin High	Yes	Following discussions within the wider Moray PTG group and with Moray Rape Crisis we have inserted an input around Misogyny and Andrew Tate for our S3 pupils in PSE. The input consists of a 45 minute documentary called “The Dangerous Rise of Andrew Tate” and then is followed up with a discussion power-point. We also have a senior phase input from Moray Rape Crisis around sexual violence.	No internal complaints of this nature	N/A
Forres Academy	No	N/A	NIL	N/A
Keith Grammar	Yes	We are about to roll out mentors in violence lessons in S3-4 PSE and also will be training mentors in violence to assist in the school social areas and to run a hub for young people who can self refer for support. As well as PSE input, there have been assemblies. We are also looking at revising our PSE programme to incorporate awareness of Andrew Tait and his rhetoric.	2022-23 - 1 incident	Police and Moray Youth Justice involved

Lossiemouth High	No	No new courses have been added in addition to what is already covered in PSE	NIL	N/A
Milne's High	No	We offer students lessons in both PSE and W&A classes in the BGE. We look specifically at the topic of popular culture influence in S2 PSE and body confidence in S2 PSE that progresses on to rise of influencers in S3 W&A	NIL	N/A
Speyside High	Yes	We have been trained and rolling out to pupils the Mentors in Violence Prevention Training	2021-22 - 1 incident	Police involved