Why we are collecting your personal data

You are invited to engage with the sustainable Learning Estate project, this may be by completing a questionnaire or survey, providing written comments at one of our in person events, or, via our webpage.

If you would like to be kept up to date with the Learning Estate project; there is an option to provide your personal data so that we can inform you of the project's progress. The personal data collected would be: name and email address.

Our legal basis

Whenever the Council processes personal data we need to make sure we have a legal basis for doing so. We understand the Council's basis in data protection law to be Article 6(1)(a) of the United Kingdom General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) because you have given consent to your personal data being used as outlined in this privacy notice.

Who we share this personal data with

Your personal data may be shared internally with authorised officers of the Council if having access to personal data is a necessary part of their roles to ensure records are accurate and up to date. It may also be shared with other relevant Council departments where applicable.

The Council may also share your personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties, where we are under a legal obligation to do so. For example this may be with Police, Social Security Scotland, UK Border Agency or other Registered Professional Bodies.

The Council is required by law to protect public funds against fraud. It may share personal data with other relevant Council departments and third parties responsible for auditing and administering public funds, or who otherwise have responsibility for preventing and detecting fraud.

Your information will be kept within the UK.

How long the personal data is held for

Your personal data will be securely stored by Moray Council for a pre-determined length of time. Information is only kept for the minimum amount of time necessary. We maintain a record retention schedule which sets out how long we retain different types of personal data. This is available on our website: http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray_standard/page_92820.html (under Section 5 of the Records Management Plan).

Your rights

Moray Council is the Data Controller for this personal data. You have legal rights about the way the Council handles and uses your personal data. These include the right to ask for a copy of it, to ask us to correct it and to ask us to stop doing something with your personal data. You have the right to withdraw consent to your personal data being used for this process. You can do this at any time by contacting: learningestate@moray.gov.uk

As so far as the legislation permits, you also have the right to request the deletion of your data, and to object to the processing.

For more information about these rights, please see the Information Management pages on the Council's website here: http://www.moray.gov.uk/moray_standard/page_41220.html. Alternatively, email the Council's Data Protection Officer at: dataprotection@moray.gov.uk

You also have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. They are the body responsible for making sure organisations like the Council handle your personal data lawfully.
