- Apologies: Pringle George
- Paul welcomed everyone to the meeting.
- Police Report: No police report but this will be sent out in due course.
- Previous Minutes: Minutes approved by Roger Austin Seconded by Paul McPherson
- Treasurers Report: Apart from £150 to Erskine there is no real change. It was agreed that Paul should order more wreaths.
- Planning: Only one item of note. A cottage in Nether Dallachy is to be demolished and a new house built.
- Events: There is an online consultation re the development at the harbour on the Facebook page of Portgordon Trust. Michelle asked if everyone could have a look and comment.
- The event at the Memorial was well attended and everyone thought it went well. The money raised (£150) went to the Erskine home in Forres for veterans. Paul delivered the money and spoke to a few of the residents. The police attended and there were no incidents. Some very good photographs were taken on the day and many have been sent to Pringle.
- Area Updates: Fochabers: There is to be improvements made to the Playpark over the next couple of. The present equipment has seen better days and is to be replaced. A committee has set up to organise funding. The park is well used and the refurbishment is well overdue.
- The Health Walk continues to be popular and was attended by 30 people at the last count.
- Fochabers now has a new restaurant – Mother Goose Bistro.

Portgordon - Michelle ran through some of the attractions in the village – Fairy walk, and café.. She also mentioned that there was an increase in the footfall which was good to hear.

AOCB: The situation at Giles Centre was discussed and Marc provided the background to what was happening at the moment. Up to date information will be passed on as soon as it is made available.
