 Tulloch Park Car Park charger was originally owned by Moray CarShare and has only been operated by Moray Council for a short period of time.

Moray Council as part of the North of Scotland consortium have just appointed a new supplier, EZO, who have been awarded a 20-year contract to provide EV charging infrastructure for the north of Scotland. The large-scale EV infrastructure project will accelerate the region's transition to Net Zero and see 570 new charging points installed across the north of Scotland by 2028, more than doubling the existing EV infrastructure and further enhancing the region's charging network.
