

Portknockie Community Council

Minutes of meeting on 12 January 2009

Present: Alan Beresford, Pearl Murray Lil Urquhart, Angela Mair, Cathleen Harper, Helen Sammon, Karen Campbell, Cllr Ron Shepherd, Cllr Stuart Cree

1 Apologies –, Gladys Mckenzie, Cllr Gary Coull, PC Tony McCullie

2 Minutes were proposed by Pearl and seconded by Cathleen.

3 Matters arising

2 Haig Street – no change.

Nurse led clinics – Alan has had a reply from Andrew Fowlie to say he will follow up this matter.

Most of the money collect by boys purporting to be fund raising for the Youth Club has been handed over to the Youth Club. The police visited the school and raised the issue with the pupils.

Homecoming – It was agreed to have a joint Homecoming celebration with the other interested parties in the village. Pearl will contact Cllr Coull and others to confirm a suitable date.

4 Police Matters

PC Tony McCullie is our new police representative. There was nothing raised for his attention.

5 School Development

Cllr Shepherd and Cllr Coull intend to meet with the people responsible for decisions relating to the library moving to the school. The school and the community as a whole need to know when the move will take place.

6 Matters for elected members

Lack of street lighting in the east part of Haig Street and 2 missing drain covers towards the top of Admiralty St were raised.

7 Correspondence was discussed.

8 Treasurer's report

The Knocker = £1291.10

Community Council = £1125.75.

9 AOCB

Neighbourhood Watch newsletters will be delivered to all households shortly.

A letter of thanks has been sent to the Earl of Seafeld for his generous contribution of £400 towards community council funds.

A vote of thanks was given to the Community Association for all their efforts in the Christmas lights display and successful lighting up ceremony.

Flowers will be sent to Mr & Mrs R Croucher to congratulate them in recently celebrating their golden wedding.

10. Mr Beresford closed the meeting. The next meeting will be at 1900 on Monday 9 February 2009 in the library.
