The following policy on Primary 1 phased entry to school was approved by the Educational Services Committee on 5 December 2001:-

- (i) phasing may take place during the first 2 weeks of the first term of attendance in Primary 1 only;
- (ii) half-day attendance for Primary 1 children is permitted during the first 2 weeks of the first term of attendance in Primary 1;
- (iii) full day attendance will commence no later than the Monday of the third week of the first term of attendance in Primary 1;
- (iv) individual school arrangements will be a matter for decision by Head Teachers at school level, following appropriate consultation with stakeholders.
