

MORAY LOCAL OUTDOOR ACCESS FORUM

CURRENT MEMBERSHIP LIST – NOV 2019

MEMBER NAME	REPRESENTATION (PEER GROUP)	BACKGROUND
Alistair Sutherland	Outdoor Access User (leg)	A local farmer with an interest in outdoor access and walking. Regularly walks locally and on holidays. Former Chair of Moray and Nairn NFU and current Vice Chair of Dyke Landward Community Council.
Karen Cox	Outdoor Access Users (Disabled Representative)
Simon Jacyna	Outdoor Access User	A former consultant with a good geographical knowledge of Moray and an understanding of land management issues. Member of the Moray Equestrian Access Group which has established a horse riding route around Tiendland Forest and produced promotional materials for horse riding routes across Moray.
Janet Trythall	Outdoor Access User	A founder member of the Moray LOAF who is now a retired anaesthetist with a strong understanding of the value of good health and the contribution that outdoor access can have in this regard. A keen hill walker and mountain biker, this member has a particular interest in the Moray Coast Trail. Previous voluntary work on field trips for the Moray Society, of which she is currently vice chair, has given this member some understanding of the needs and limitations of all ability access. Practical experience of maintaining paths. On sub-group of Lossiemouth Community Council trying to establish Hopeman/Lossie Cycle Path.
Andy Greenhalgh	Outdoor Access User	Duke of Edinburgh's Award and Development Worker with Moray Council - 35 year outdoor professional now supporting the Duke of Edinburgh's Award volunteer network within Moray. Looking to provide and receive up to date information on outdoor access.
Terrence Dennis Ballard	Outdoor Access User (leg)	Keen walker with extensive knowledge of the North East Countryside. Member of Badenoch & Strathspey Orienteering Club. Has a MLTB Mountain Leaders qualification and is also a member of Elgin & District U3A walking group.

MEMBER NAME	REPRESENTATION (PEER GROUP)	BACKGROUND
Donald Vass	Community Groups
Clive Roberts	Community Groups	Keen outdoor enthusiast: diving caving, mountaineering, walking, cycling. Has a number of outdoor leader/instructor qualifications. Works with the Dava Way Association as a volunteer and also takes part in fell running/long distance events.
Wilson Metcalfe	Community Groups	Keen walker and cyclist with extensive knowledge of Moray's paths. Chairman of the Forres Footpaths Trust, with an enthusiasm for developing community involvement in outdoor access. Formally Air Commodore at RAF Kinloss. Also trustee of Forres Community Woodland Trust and regular work party volunteer with the Dava Way Association. Also member of the Moray Way Association and leader of walks as part of the Moray Walking Festival.
Jean Oliver	Community Groups	Chairperson of Speyside Paths Network Group and a keen walker. This member takes active interest in local community and environmental matters
Malcolm Campbell	Community Groups	An active cyclist and hill walker who since retiring almost 7 years ago has climbed all 282 Munros, cycled thousands of miles in the UK and Europe and been an active member of the team of volunteers maintaining the Dava Way. Is currently a committee member of the Moray Mountaineering Club, a volunteer ranger with Sustrans covering the 50 mile section of the North Sea Cycle Route (NCN1) located in Moray and is Secretary of the Dava way Association and a Trustee for the Dava Way. Joined the Moray LOAF as a Member in 2018.
Charles Petrie	Landowner/Land Manager/Farmers
Rachel Mackellar	Landowners/Land Managers/Farmers

MEMBER NAME	REPRESENTATION (PEER GROUP)	BACKGROUND
Angus Dixon	Landowners/Land Managers/Farmers	Involved in management of a number of Moray's woodlands where there is public access. Experienced in woodland management for recreation through involvement with the Quarrelwood Woodland Park Association and the Forres Woodland Community Trust.
Gilbert Bain	Landowners/Land Managers/Farmers	Farmer near Elgin since 1984, currently involved in organic farming. Interested in encouraging public access and appreciation of nature. Member of Scottish Mountaineers and Moray Road Runners. Involved in organising outdoor access events in Moray for many years.
Ed Dunbar	Landowners/Land Managers/Farmers	Manages a small rural estate by Duffus. Aim is to continue to diversify the estate business recognising the importance of Tourism. Qualified Rural Chartered Surveyor with Peter Graham and Associates LLP. Often works to ensure client estate activities can be conducted in harmony with public access. Former member of Midlothian Access Forum with a wide range of knowledge in access matters. Currently a member of the Laich of Moray Coast Tourism Group. Enjoys being out of doors and is a keen runner. Also board member of 'Earthtime' which promotes outdoor education and activity for children.
VACANT National Farmers Union of Scotland (NFUS)	Public Agencies
Councillor Louise Laing Forum Convener	Public Agencies	Councillor with the Moray Council with a keen interest in the outdoors and leisure tourism.
Shirley Reid Scottish National Heritage	Public Agencies	Currently SNH Local Officer. Possesses detailed understanding of the Access Legislation and the S.O.A.C.

MEMBER NAME	REPRESENTATION (PEER GROUP)	BACKGROUND
JOINT FORESTRY REPS Justin Livesey Forestry and Land Scotland (FLS) Management of forest estate Tim Gordon-Roberts Scottish Forestry (SF) Policy, support and regulation	Public Agencies
Laura Sutherland Moray Community Health and Social Care Partnership	Public Agencies	