

Appendix 5 – Photos of visibility at proposed access

These photographs show a car with its lights on (for ease of identification) sitting at either end of the proposed visibility splay. We believe that this demonstrates that visibility to the required standard can be achieved.

