

Appendix 1 – Table showing Proposed Changes to Polling Places

Polling District	Current Polling Place	Polling Place proposed	Notes
MM0110 - Dufftown	Mortlach School, Dufftown	Mortlach Memorial Hall	-
MM0113 - Tomintoul	Tomintoul Primary School	Richmond Memorial Hall	-
GM0205 - Grange	Crossroads School, Grange	King Memorial Hall, Grange	-
MM0304 - Millbank	Millbank School, Buckie	Royal British Legion Hall	Temporary wooden ramps req. for disabled access
MM0305 – Buckie East		North Church Hall, Buckie	Existing Polling Place for MM0303 –Buckie Central
MM0501 – Burghead & Cummingston	Burghead Primary School	Burghead Church of Scotland Hall	Next door to school
MM0502 - Hopeman	Hopeman Primary School	Hopeman Memorial Hall	-
MM0703 – New Elgin West	New Elgin School	New Elgin & Ashgrove Hall	See note 1 below
MM0804 – Dyke incl. Darnaway	Dyke School	Dyke & District Hall	-
MM0804 – Forres Central	Applegrove Primary School	Forres Town Hall	Existing Polling Place for MM0805 – Forres East
MM0409 – Fochabers	Fochabers Public Institute	Bellie Church Hall	Temporary move. see note 2 below

- 1) It was intended that both polling districts MM0702 (currently voting at Greenwards Primary School) and MM0703 (currently voting at New Elgin Primary School) be moved to the New Elgin & Ashgrove Hall. However, given the numbers of voters involved it has been decided to move one Polling District MM0703 – New Elgin from New Elgin School first, and then reassess the use of this venue after the General Election. Thereafter if it this venue is felt to have capacity and is able to serve both Polling Districts, it may be possible to move MM0702 – New Elgin East from Greenwards Primary School to this new venue for elections from 2011.
- 2) The Elections Office has been advised that the Fochabers Public Institute is to have heating works during late spring/early summer and will not be available for public use. The move to Bellie Church Hall is therefore only necessary should the General Election fall in May/June 2010 and thereafter the Polling Place will return to Fochabers Public Institute.