Air Training Corps

The Air Training Corps is the RAF's cadet force. The aim of the cadets is to:

- Promote and encourage a practical interest in aviation and the Royal Air Force
- Provide training which will be useful in the Services and civilian life
- Encourage the spirit of adventure and develop qualities of leadership and good citizenship

Cadets can join at age 13 as Junior Cadets and sit exams in aviation studies to progress to First Class cadet, Leading cadet, Senior cadet, and Staff cadet. They can work towards the Business & Technology Council (BTEC) Award in Aviation Studies, the BTEC Certificate in Aviation Studies, the BTEC First Diploma in Public Services, and the BTEC First Diploma in Music. They can obtain badges for First Aid, Shooting, Gliding/Flying Scholarships, Duke of Edinburgh's Award and various sports.

In addition, cadets can achieve the Air Cadet CV, which provides cadets with a record of evidence of their achievements. To be awarded the Air Cadet CV, cadets must have completed 6 activities, which range from having a minimum of 18 months enrolled service to gaining a Duke of Edinburgh Bronze Award.

The Units in the Moray area are in Elgin, Forres, and Rothes (Speyside). The number of Air Training Corps cadets as at April 2013:-

Unit	2012/13
Elgin – 423 Squadron	44
Forres – 446 Squadron	6
Speyside – 423 Detached Flight	6
Totals	56

Sea Cadet Corps

Moray Sea Cadets was formally adopted by the Sea Cadet Corps in 2004 and currently has cadets from across the Moray area. Cadets partake in a number of water based activities such as kayaking, canoeing, pulling and dinghy sailing and other boating exercises. Learning the ropes for seamanship, navigation, boating and sailing can lead to RYA qualifications. Cadets are actively encouraged to go for weekend training to increase their progression and add to their qualifications.

Other land based activities include camping expeditions, summer camps, weapons handling and shooting competitions. Qualifications such as the Duke of Edinburgh Award and BTEC in Public Services or Marine Engineering can also be gained.

Young people can join the Sea Cadet if they are between 10 - 18 years of age. Those aged 10-12 join as juniors and over 12's join as senior cadets. Currently there are 57 enrolled with the Moray unit, made up of 20 Juniors, 36 senior cadets and 1 new entry.

Army Cadet Force Association

The Army Proficiency Certificate (APC) syllabus has 9 progressive subjects:

- The Cadet and The Community; Map and Compass; Drill, Turnout & Military Knowledge; First Aid; Shooting; Expedition Training; Skill at Arms; Fieldcraft; Physical Recreation

Cadets will progress through 6 challenging 'star' award levels, moving up the ranks to Senior Cadet. The Senior Cadet can then participate at an advanced level to achieve Master Cadet. Cadets who complete the Master Cadet Course are eligible for the Certificate in Team Leading from the Institute of Leadership & Management.

The Army Cadet Force Association is the second largest operator of the Duke of Edinburgh's Award (DofE), with 2-star normally being the level Cadets would be working at when participating in the Bronze Award, and 4-star being the level for Silver and Gold Awards.

Through the Cadet Vocational Qualification Organisation (CVQO), Cadets from 3-star level (aged 16 and over) can earn BTEC First Diploma in Public Services or BTEC First Diploma in Music, which is equivalent to 4 Standard Grades at levels 1-3. The Lord Lieutenant's Cadet is the ultimate Award for all ACF cadets.

The Detachments in the Moray area are in Elgin, Forres, Buckie and Keith. The numbers of Army cadets in 2012-13 by detachment were:-

Detachment	2012/13
Elgin	31
Forres	25
Buckie	22
Keith	20
Totals	98

In 2012-13 the following number of Army cadets from the Buckie and Keith (2nd Battalion The Highlanders) detachments completed awards:-

Boys' Brigade

The Boys' Brigade provides a programme of activity across four different age groups. The Brigade offers a progression programme with different awards schemes for different ages, and the opportunity to undertake a Queen's Badge and a Duke of Edinburgh's Award.

The Queen's Badge is the highest award in the Boy's Brigade and recognises young people's achievements during their time in the Boy's Brigade, developing skills in leadership, communication, outdoor expeditions, working with people and volunteering in the wider community.

Over the last two year, 32 boys in Moray have been awarded the Queen's Badge in recognition of their dedication and commitment in making a difference to their company, their community and themselves. A remarkable 28 of the 32 boys who have gained their Queen's Badge award came from the 1st Buckie Boy's Brigade, the largest Boy's Brigade Company in the United Kingdom.

There are 5 Battalion's based in the Moray area, these being Buckie, Burghead, Elgin, Lossiemouth and Rothes. In total there were 227 members in the most recent census, the number and ages of participants are provided below:-

Moray Battalion	Anchor Boys (age 5-7)	Juniors (age 8-10)	Company (age 11-18)	Totals

Duke of Edinburgh's Award

The Duke of Edinburgh's Award (DofE) is recognised as the 'World's leading accreditation for young people' by employers, and those within Further and Higher Education. It is a programme that promotes a range of core vocational skills. Gaining any of the 3 awards (bronze, silver or gold) is a huge achievement recognising perseverance, determination, teamwork, flexibility, and the young person's awareness of their own potential.

There are 4 sections (5 at Gold award level):-

- Learning a Skill
- Doing a Physical activity
- Volunteering
- Completing, in a group, an unaccompanied, self-reliant Expedition
- Residential (Gold award level only)

The minimum commitments are:

- Bronze – 6 months
- Silver – 12 months (6 months if a Bronze award has been completed)
- Gold – 18 months (12 months if a Silver award has been completed)

In 2012-13 a total of 403 young people from Moray enrolled onto the DofE awards scheme through the Moray Council, this includes 118 students participating in the Award via Skillforce. There are a number of centres where young people are able to progress through their awards as listed below, with Moray Council overseeing awards for each centre.

The Award can take longer than 1 year to complete, so some participants who registered in 2012-13 may still be working towards the Award. The number of participants who undertook their awards in 2012/2013 is as follows:-

Girl Guiding Scotland (The Queen's Guide Award)

Girlguiding Scotland aim is to enable girls and young women to fulfil their potential and to take an active and responsible role in society through a distinctive, stimulating and enjoyable programme of activities delivered by the girlguiding movement. The scope and flexibility of the programme, designed to meet the needs of each girl, reflect this emphasis on personal achievement.

The ultimate award in guiding is the Queen's Guide Award which involves a series of challenges aimed at developing personal skills whilst contributing to Guiding and the local community. These skills include teamwork, time management, organisational skills, planning, evaluation, and community skills.

At present two Moray guides are working towards the Queen's Guide Award.

In Moray there were 892 girls enrolled with the girlguiding movement at the beginning of April 2013. In total there are 58 units based throughout Moray, below is a summary table of girlguiding numbers by 'Area' and 'Section':

Area	Section				Total

Youth Awards in Moray

John Muir Trust (The John Muir Award)

The John Muir Award is an environmental award that is delivered through partnerships with youth organisations, schools, clubs, Local Authorities, and outdoor centres. It encourages awareness and responsibility for the natural environment through a range of activities that encompass 4 challenges – discover a wild place; explore its wildness; conserve a wild place; and share your experience. There are 3 levels of award, encouraging a progressive involvement:

- Discovery Award (introductory level) – a minimum 4 days (or equivalent)
- Explorer Award (intermediate level) – a minimum 8 days (or equivalent)
- Conserver Award (advanced level) – a minimum 20 days (or equivalent) over 6 months

John Muir Award participants in Moray were registered for the scheme through a variety of sources, such as:-

- Active Schools Co-ordinators, Local Integration Support Services, Outfit Moray, Primary and Secondary schools, Skillsforce, Moray Youth Action and 'Wild Things!'

During 2012, Moray pupils from 20 primary schools and 3 secondary schools signed up and completed the John Muir Awards in the Cairngorms.

In 2012 a total of 636 John Muir Awards were gained by young people in Moray (aged 16 years and under) through the John Muir Award scheme in the Cairngorms. The breakdown of awards and ages are detailed below:

Musical Achievements (ABRSM)

The National Youth Orchestras of Scotland (NYOS) provides orchestral experiences in classical and jazz music for its students from the age of 8 – 25, through eight ensembles, ranging in age, size and musical style. NYOS Junior Orchestra is for ambitious young musicians aged between 8 and 14 years old and the first step on the ladder for The National Youth Orchestra of Scotland. NYOS Senior Orchestra is for graduates of the NYOS Junior Orchestra and older students aged between 12 and 18 years old, aspiring to become members of The National Youth Orchestra of Scotland. The National Youth Orchestra of Scotland is the flagship orchestra of NYOS for musicians aged between 13 and 25. Auditions for entry to The National Youth Orchestra of Scotland are held annually, throughout Scotland, attracting hundreds of auditionees each year.

This year there were 6 pupils from Moray in the NYOS groups. NYOS Junior - 2; NYOS Senior - 2 and NYOS - 2. The pupils attend schools including Forres Academy, Buckie High School and Speyside High School.

The Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music (ABRSM) is an examinations board in London which provides examinations in music at centres around the world. The Royal Schools referred to in the ABRSM's title are: The Royal Academy of Music, The Royal College of Music, The Royal Conservatoire of Scotland, The Royal Northern College of Music. More than 650,000 candidates take the ABRSM examinations each year in over 93 countries.

In March, June and December the Head of Instrumental Instruction compiled a list of grades passed after each Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music examination and these are published in the Northern Scot.

ABRSM results on average per year

Based on 2009-2010, 2010-2011 and 2011-2012 the average results per year for Moray students were pass 40%; merit 40% and distinction 15%. The number of pupils who were below pass standard was less than 5%. Most pupils achieved either a pass or a merit with over 15% achieving a distinction which is 5% above the national average. The pupils were from all 8 secondary schools and 30 primary schools with pupils varying in age from 8 – 18.

Number of pupils who sat ABRSM exams between 2009 and 2012

2009-2010 Strings 108; Woodwind 33 and Brass 19
2010-2011 Strings 106; Woodwind 51 and Brass 19
2011-2012 Strings 157; Woodwind 31 and Brass 33

Scottish Council – The Scout Association

There are 4 scouting sections which are age related, these are the Beavers (age 6-8), Cubs (age 8-10), Scouts (age 10-14) and the Explorers (age 14-18). All scouting members are guided through a programme of training, activities, badges and awards as they progress through the 4 scouting sections.

The ultimate award that a scout can achieve is the Queen's Scout Award. The Award is comparable to the Duke of Edinburgh's Gold Award, however, to gain the award, a Queen's Scout must also complete a values based programme in addition to the common requirements of both awards.

The number of Beavers/Cubs/Scouts in Moray at the 2013 census was as follows:-

Group	Section
	Beavers	Cubs	Scouts	Total
Aberlour	6	5	10	21
Elgin (1 st , 2 nd & 5 th )	46	54	48	148

Sports Leaders UK

Sports Leaders UK are the governing body of a range of sports related leadership courses. The courses are designed to teach generic leadership skills such as organisation, planning, communication and teamwork through the medium of sport.

These are nationally recognised qualifications and are delivered throughout Moray both in school and to the wider adult community through Sports Development, Active Schools and the school curriculum. The courses vary in entry level age but the youngest course is for 13 year olds and over.

Since April 2011 the Moray Council Sports Development team have delivered the Level 2 Community Sports Leadership Award course to 21 senior school students across Moray. Of the students who started the course 16 went on to achieve their Leadership award. The students came from the following schools:

Secondary School	Students
Elgin High / Academy	10
Forres Academy	3
Keith Grammar	3
Lossiemouth High	1
Milne's High	2
Speyside High	2

The next Level 2 Community Sports Leadership course is due to commence in summer 2013.

The Councils Active Schools Team run a number of sports youth achievement programmes in conjunction with national agencies. One of the most successful programmes delivered in 2012/13 is the Active Girls programme which ran in conjunction with the national youth dance agency, YDance.

By the end of the programme 34 girls from all Moray secondary schools had been trained up as Sports Leaders UK Dance Leaders level 1 – an intensive 4 day training and assessment that gave the girls a nationally-recognised qualification. The girls are now back at their schools and inspiring others to get involved in dance by leading sessions and after-school clubs.

Youth Scotland – The Dynamic Youth Awards

The Dynamic Youth Awards are peer assessed awards recognising the contributions and achievements of young people in the 10 to 14 age group.

Dynamic Youth Awards are delivered throughout Scotland in youth work, social work, school and alternative curriculum settings. The Awards provide a quality process that can be used to accredit any activity, supporting young people to plan their involvement, record what they do, review their achievements, and access peer group support and assessment.

In 2011-12, 115 young people gained their Dynamic Youth Award through the Moray Council's Operating Agency. This represented a total of 2,588 hours of work that had been carried out in achieving these awards. There were a number of youth groups and schools involved in helping the young people achieve their awards.

Youth Scotland – The Youth Achievement Awards

Youth Achievement Awards offer a peer assessed approach to recognising and accrediting achievements and contributions of young people aged 14 plus.

Youth Achievement Awards enable young people to develop as successful learners, confident individuals, responsible citizens and effective contributors; and recognise young people's contributions in a variety of settings including youth work, volunteering, active citizenship, alternative curriculum and formal education.

There are 4 stages of involvement:

- The Bronze Award requires participation in activities in 4 15-hour challenges
- The Silver Award is 6 15-hour challenges where young people help to organise their own activities
- The Gold Award requires 7 15-hour challenges and a presentation, where the focus is on planning, organising and leading activities
- The Platinum Award includes a total of 135 hours participation, and develops leadership skills

The number of young people successfully completing their Youth Achievement Awards in 2011-12 through the Moray Council's Operating Agency was as follows:-

Award	2011-12
Bronze	9
Silver	1
Gold	0
Platinum	2

CLD Youth Work Team

The Community Learning & Development Youth Work team is uniquely placed to work with all young people aged 11-25 years, with particular emphasis on work with more vulnerable young people. A youth worker meets young people in a variety of settings, within school and out with, plus signposts other agencies in order that informed choices can be made.

Three key areas for the CLD Youth Work Team:

1. Youth work in schools: Supporting P7 – S1 transition groups, delivering tailored personal development and leadership Participate Courses, 1:1 and small group support via LIAP referrals and building up wider achievements.
2. Youth Work in the Community: Supporting youth clubs, 1:1 and group support to unemployed young people, community action groups, open award groups and 1:1 Youth Literacies tutoring.
- 3: Community Capacity Building: skilling up young people to take leadership roles within youth clubs, develop youth participation by supporting Moray Youth Council to progress issues; develop volunteering opportunities and placements; offering training to volunteers and staff to develop skills and competence; support local community and voluntary organisations, linked to youth work provision.

During 2011-12 the CLD Youth Work Team helped over 350 pupils gain a recognised award as part of their wider achievement through Moray schools. The awards included SQA recognised accreditations (such as Personal Development, Steps to Work and Leadership), Duke of Edinburgh awards and certificates, First Aid badges, Dynamic Youth and Youth Achievement Awards.

A detailed breakdown on the participating school groups and number of awards achieved is on page 14.

Youth Awards in Moray

Skillforce - Moray

Skillforce is a charity registered organisation which works closely with schools, and using the skills and experiences of predominantly ex-Forces personnel, to help young people find a way to achievement and success. The purpose of Skillforce is to give young people – regardless of academic ability, background or school record – what they need to succeed later in life.

Moray Skillforce deliver educational programmes in secondary schools to young people in S3 and S4. Students are offered the opportunity to gain up to 17 wider awards and/or qualifications and encouraged to reach their academic potential.

In 2011/12 the following awards were achieved through the guidance of the Moray Skillforce team:
