

Fairer Scotland Fund National Outcome 11

We have strong, resilient and supportive communities where people take responsibility for their own actions and how they affect others.	Supporting Adult Engagement Moray has a reputation as a supportive community with a strong sense of community and a strong voluntary sector. Moray has 15 operating community councils, a healthy network of village halls with an active Federation of Community Halls and Associations. The Community Planning Partnership has local participation networks to bring together a wide range of local community organisations and individuals. Supporting Young People's Engagement Young people have participated in the development of the Moray Youth Strategy and indicated their desire to have a voice. Moray established a youth participation framework with a Youth Council with a full quota of School Councils and representatives at The Scottish Youth Parliament, supported by the Dialogue Youth Initiative. Young People are actively using the "What's on Where" internet site with monthly hits on the site rising from 550 in 2005 to 6,000 in 2007. The site is contributed to by 16 young people who keep the information up to date and relevant. 6,500 young people hold Smartcards and are then eligible to receive local discounts, which have been built up by the 20 young people volunteers with local businesses. 28 young people have also volunteered over 1,000 hours through the Millennium awards volunteers.
