Recruitment is underway, with the vacant post expected to be filled by December 2026. This is anticipated to improve performance and support increased service capacity into 2027. In addition, the appointment of a Principal Officer by November 2026 will provide greater strategic oversight and leadership, helping to drive service improvements and enhance response times for newly registered businesses.As this is a new performance indicator, results from the current reporting period will be used to establish a baseline for future comparison. | | |
